Re: United States v. Kevin William Small
Case No. # 1:06-CR-00139

Dear Clerk of Courts,

I recently filed two (2) Petitions, the first on was an amendment to my Habeas Corpus 2255 Petition, and the second Petition I filed was a Motion to Request an Expedited Hearing which was filed several weeks ago. My concern was that I never received conformation of either filing.

I'm concerned because when I filed my original Habeas Corpus n 2255 your office inadvertently said the Petition was never filed leaving me to petition the court to receive a document statement. Mistakes happen. Nevertheless, these Petitions are time sensitive and I need a docketing statement. I requested one when I filed both Petitions but never heard from your office. If an inmate filing pro-se isn't allowed to receive conformation that his Petitions are indeed being filed then please advise me if I have to Petition the court for a Docketing Statement every time I file a Petition.

However, if I do not have to Petition the Court every time then would you please send me a copy of the docketing statement pertaining to the case referenced above.

I really appreciate your time and consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Kevin William Small
